H11: 5508 Vincent Ave S

Designer: Katie Jaydan | Project Type: Kitchen
Educational Feature: Extreme Transformations

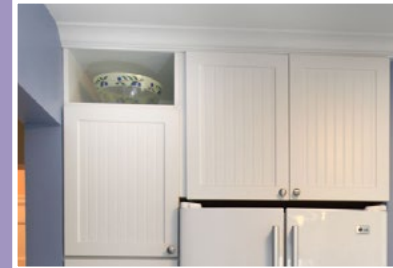

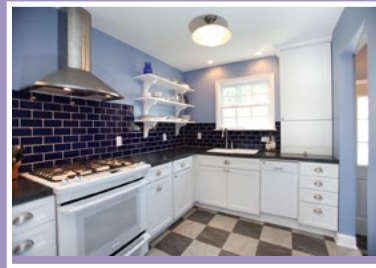

The Kitchen of this 1947 South Minneapolis home saw a major transformation. What used to be an unfunctional kitchen is now an effective space with ample storage and counter space. Previously, the space felt outdated with little color to be found. Now the space is bright with a beautiful Colbalt tile backsplash, white cabinetry and black laminate countertops. Unique features include open shelving, a sink tip-out, and an eat-in kitchennette area. The duo-toned grey checkboard floor adds dimension without being overwhelming and ties the overall room together.
