The Educational Remodeling Tour

H7: 4327 Abbott Ave S

Designer: Katie Jaydan | Project Type: Kitchen
Educational Feature: Kitchen Typical Costs

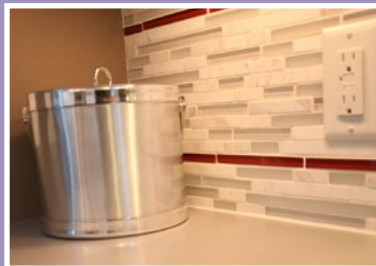

This 1950 South Minneapolis rambler was ready to be opened up to create a more spacious dining experience. The original wall separating a Bedroom next to a closed off Kitchen was removed, doubling the overall size and allowing for a shared Kitchen and Dining Room. A raised bar, cabinetry and range connect the new dining space to the Kitchen allowing for entertainment and cooking to happen in one central location. To remain on budget, selections were made with a budget conscious mind. The end result is an affordable fabulous new kitchen to be enjoyed for years to come.

After

Left: Overview of new Kitchen facing entry.

Center: Custom tile backsplash.

Right: New peninsula with bar height counter.

Center: Original upper cabinets.

Right: Original storage and eating area.
